Significant Issues and Responsive Programming
April 1 – June 30, 2009

Following are the categories of issues/concerns determined by WBTV to be of significance in the service area. Under each are described typical and illustrative programs, broadcast during the period, to address those problems and needs. This listing is representative only. It is neither a comprehensive listing of all needs of the service areas as ascertained by the licensee nor the totality of the licensee's responsive programming to those needs.

Applicable CBS/network programming is attached by hard copy. All responsive local programming produced outside the already dedicated newscasts is aired in prime access time periods.

Utilizing information gathered from news personnel, WBTV staff members, local community groups and leaders, and viewer research the following list has been compiled and is the most current significant problems, needs, and interests within our community today. Below is a representative list:

Sunday

6:30-7:00 p.m.
11:00-11:35 p.m.

A Monday-Sunday 10:00-10:30 p.m. Newscast is also produced for another local station (WJZY).

WBTV NEWS PRIMETIME - As in most major markets, many working people in the Charlotte DMA do not have the opportunity to see local news at a time that is convenient for them. For this reason, WBTV 3 On Your Side became the first station in Charlotte to expand Local News to 7:00 p.m. This WBTV Newscast reaches an entirely new segment of the population that has wanted to watch local news, but just did not get home in time for the traditional early newscasts.

WBTV SPECIAL LOCAL PROGRAMMING:

Thursday, April 9, 7:30-8 p.m.

WBTV News Special: *History of Gangs in Charlotte

WBTV Anchor/Reporter Molly Grantham hosted a WBTV News Special highlighting the history of Gangs in Charlotte.

Saturday, May 2, 7-7:30 p.m. / Sunday, May 10, 5:30-6 p.m.

WBTV Weather Special: *Surviving the Storm

WBTV Meteorologists produced weather special to help people prepare for upcoming severe weather and hurricane season in the Carolinas.

SIGNIFICANT ISSUES:

ECONOMY

4/1/09 City Budget (5:30 p.m. :18)

The tough economy hits home with Charlotte City workers. At a budget mtg., no salary increases for city employees, and they will also have to pay more for health insurance.

4/8/09 Sanford in Fort Mill (6 a.m. :31)

Economy alert: Sanford refusing to accept $700 million dollars in federal stimulus money that would go towards education.

4/15/09 Tax Day Deadlines (5 p.m. :15, 5:30 p.m. 1:09)

For all of the people who are filing last minute - there are many this year who are choosing not to file at all because they know they owe - and because of job loss, or the economy, they can't afford to pay. It's a bad idea not to file - coming up at 5-30 what the IRS says your options are.

4/17/09 Consumer Confidence (6 p.m. 1:13)

Shoppers talked to today say they are finding some bright spots in economy, consumer confidence is beginning to return.

5/23/09 Charlotte Bobcats for Sale (6 p.m. :28, 10 p.m. :29, 11 p.m. :28)

Bob Johnson has said 325 million or more is price tag for Charlotte Bobcats. That's pretty steep for the Bobcats - due to the economy, and after the Bobcats lost tens of millions of dollars last year. Jordan is the minority owner of the the team and has shown interest in being the majority owner. Johnson says he'd be happy to talk to MJ about the possibility no phone calls between them so far - there are rumors of other buyers interested but no specific names have yet surfaced.

5/29/09 Wachovia Worker (5 a.m. :51, 6 a.m. :51)

Hundreds of local bankers are out of a job. Even those who haven't been laid off -- are still on the edge of their seats. A Wachovia-Wells worker tells us more layoffs are on the way here in Charlotte. So -- bankers there are working desperately to reinvent their careers.

6/19/09 NASCAR Hall of Fame Opening (7 p.m. :29, 10 p.m. :32, 11 p.m. 1:06)

Construction is kicking into high gear at the new NASCAR Hall of Fame. We now know Charlotte's new attraction will open in less than a year. The official date...May 11th, 2010. Perfect timing because NASCAR fans will already be in town for the All Star Race. Mayor McCrory says this shot of speed is just what the city needs.

6/28/09 Will Trump Come to Charlotte? (6:30 p.m. 1:29, 10 p.m. 1:30, 11 p.m. 1:29)

Donald Trump tells me he still plans to put his name on something here in Center City -- the only change is that he's looking at buying an existing property instead of building one. The one and only Donald Trump arriving in a private section of Charlotte-Douglas International. This is not his first time visiting the Queen City, in fact he says he's grown quite fond of it.

PUBLIC SAFETY

4/13/09 Motorcycle Laws (5:30 p.m. 1:07)

As it stands now, NC law doesn't require any training to get a motorcycle license. You do have to pass a test at the DMV, but experts say weaving through cones isn't quite the same as wide open on the road. Proposed law would require motorcycle drivers take a safety test.

4/30/09 Tracking Swine Flu (10 p.m. :39)

We're on your side, tracking the spread of the swine flu. And first of all -- just know, it's no longer being called swine flu... the World Health Organization is now asking everyone to call it the H-1-N-1 Flu. We're up to thirteen cases in the Carolinas.

5/1/09 Swine Flu (5 a.m. :40)

Three members of the same South Carolina family have gotten swine flu. Jennifer Moates never left the state of South Carolina, but her daughters caught the swine flu on a trip to Cancun, Mexico. They apparently then gave it to her. Moates says she and other Newberry Academy parents wish they had known about the danger when they let their kids go on the trip.

5/25/09 Sunblock (5 p.m. 1:09)

We've come across some surprising information, we did some research. Most adults should use about one ounce of sunscreen to cover their whole body. And we'll do a little experiment to show you how much sunscreen we're talking about.

5/31/09 Infant Swimming Safety (10 p.m. :34, 11 p.m. :34)

Infant Swimming Resource...and I'll show you how it works. Babies as young as six months old can learn -- and they are really put to the test.

6/22/09 Traffic Cameras (6 p.m. :11, 7 p.m. :38, 11 p.m. 1:50)

City plans to install almost 100 traffic cameras across busy corridors in Charlotte.

6/30/09 Fireworks Safety (6 p.m. :32)

A reminder from CMPD of the explosive consequences of firecrackers.

If you crossed into South Carolina to get some fireworks, cops want you to see just how dangerous setting them off can be. Fireworks are illegal in North Carolina, but police say if you decide to ignore the law, don't ignore common sense.

SOCIAL; HUMAN SERVICES

4/10/09 Quail Hollow Championship

And here in Charlotte -- the Queen City is gearing up for the PGA Tour. The newly re-named Quail Hollow Championship starts in just two weeks. Preparations are already underway. The tournament had made some big changes -- the biggest was that name change from the Wachovia Championship to the Quail Hollow Championship Wells Fargo... the bank that bought Wachovia.. surprised everyone four weeks ago and took its name off the tournament. Tournament executive director Kym Hougham told us everything else stays the same. Ticket prices haven't increased.. and vendors are keeping their prices at 2008 levels.

4/12/09 Consumer Alert: DTV Big Switch (11:00 p.m. :38)

DTV day is our chance to share with you more information about the June 12th conversion from analog to digital television broadcasting.

4/13/09 DTV Test Tomorrow (5 p.m. :22, 11 p.m. :22)

WBTV will do a DTV test tomorrow for those who may not be ready for the Big Switch.

4/14/09 DTV Test (5 a.m. :24, 6 a.m. :23, 7 p.m. :23)

In just two months, your analog television signal will be going away. June 12th is now the day, and WBTV is on your side helping you get ready. We'll be doing a DTV test tonight at 7:30 following WBTV Primetime. Only people who are not ready for the change-over will be affected. Remember, we do have information on the DTV switch on our website. Just go to WBTV dot com and click on "the Big Switch."

4/18/09 DTV Big Switch (6 a.m. 3:14)

It's hard convincing some people why it's necessary, but it just is. On June 12th all television station on analog signals will lose reception.

5/8/09 DTV Event (5 a.m. :17, 6 a.m. :18)

We are counting down to the big switch to Digital Television. This weekend representatives from the FCC will be in Union County to answer your questions.

5/12/09 Consumer Alert: DTV Big Switch (5:30 p.m. :45)

DTV day is our chance to share with you more information about the June 12th conversion from analog to digital television broadcasting.

5/22/09 FCC on DTV Switch (5 a.m. :37, 6 a.m. :37, Noon :38, 5 p.m. :22)
Time is running out to make the big switch. The FCC is worried that many folks in the Charlotte area are not prepared for the switch to digital television.

5/27/09 Big Switch Help (5 a.m. :27, 6 a.m. :27)
Many still not ready for the Big Switch... fire crews in Gaston County helping residents prepare.

6/10/09 Consumer Alert: DTV Big Switch (5 p.m. :55)
The Big Switch is happening in two days! Last minute advice on re-scanning your converter box.

6/11/09 Burke County School Superintendent (10 p.m. 1:29)
Tonight we're hearing one possible reason why the Burke County School board wants to get rid of Superintendent David Burleson.

6/12/09 Consumer Alert: DTV Big Switch (5 a.m. :25, 6 a.m. :33, 12N :30, 5 p.m. :29, 5:30 p.m. :21, 6 p.m. :30, 7 p.m. :28, 10 p.m. :32, 11 p.m. :25)
The Big Switch happened today, all analog signals were turned off and viewers will receive television digitally.

6/13/09 The Big Switch is over (6 a.m. :32)
After years of talking about it - the Big Switch is over - television stations have now stopped broadcasting an analog signal - they've gone all digital. Still there were some people who weren't ready by yesterday's deadline and were scrambling to purchase a converter box or antenna - and get some help installing. WBTV was on your side with an all-day call center yesterday - a group of experts on hand to answer questions - and we got more than 400 calls. If you or someone you know still needs help with the conversion - the FCC has four thousand people answering phones 24 hours a day - the number to call is 1-888-CALL-FCC.

6/17/09 The Big Switch Wrap-Up (5 p.m. :32)
It appears a majority of the Carolinas - including Charlotte - made it through the DTV switch without too many problems. Two stations in Raleigh can't tune in a large area of their viewers. Best advice - for most of those people - a 15 dollar antenna that brings in UHF and VHF signals works best. Sometimes better than a high-powered antenna.

WBTV EDITORIALS, 2Q 2009:

"Speak Out" is an expression of opinion from the Editorial Board of WBTV, and is presented by General Manager, Nick Simonette.

Speak Out: Closed Door Meetings

Politicians can do a lot of good and harm behind closed doors. They can make deals... create alliances... and conceal their conversations. Now, thanks to a bold decision from Mecklenburg County Commissioners, closed-door meetings will be recorded for the public to hear. We say "Atta boy." If our elected leaders know their words are being recorded, it will help ensure accountability and truthfulness when the public isn't watching. We now say to Charlotte's City Council, Charlotte Mecklenburg's School Board and other bodies of government, "Get with the program." State law allows the recordings. Charlotte's Mayor and CMS's Superintendent are on record saying they are ok with it. Elected leaders just have to vote the policy through. We recognize certain topics are too sensitive to tape and may jeopardize negotiations. But when the need for confidentiality has passed, why not let taxpayers hear the debate and discussion? If you agree, tell your Council and School Board representatives you want more transparency. If they oppose the idea, Then ask, "What do you have to hide?"

Speak Out: Desperate Times

Desperation is not a tangible thing. Only...It's starting to feel like it. You can touch it. You can see it. If desperation could talk, we'd hear a loud chorus of people speaking that language. I bet you know at least one person who has lost their job because of the economy. You may know several. Positions are being eliminated. Unemployment is high. Money is tight. Times are tough. What can you do about it? Well, if you are employed -- there are two things. First, consider yourself lucky, fortunate, blessed. Second, start looking to help others. These are our neighbors, our family... and so many of our friends. Nearly ten out of every 100 Americans are unemployed. These folks aren't loafers trying to take advantage of the system out there looking for work -- There is incredible talent searching for a job. Help them. It doesn't need to be in dollars and cents -- It can be in time and networking. If you know someone who lost their job, ask how they're searching for a new one. Offer to look at their resume. Send out emails on their behalf. Or... very easily... just listen to how they're going about the process. Some of you might discount this. I know that's likely. I also know that if this helps just one person, then the past 75 seconds was our way of practicing what we just preached.

Speak Out: Kids Are Drinking

Parents: OPEN YOUR EYES. Teenagers are drinking alcohol. Underage kids *are* buying and consuming beer, wine, and liquor. Lots of it. Monroe Police Chief Debra Duncan says, "We have a problem with underage drinking, binge drinking with juveniles, and I think it's very important to let people know we are not going to put up with it." Her town of Monroe is doing something about the fact kids get drunk. Good for Monroe. We think it's good to face the issue head-on. Duncan's officers are cracking down on how teens buy alcohol -- Last week they announced the findings of a three-month undercover investigation. ABC officers sent an 18-year-old hooked up to a hidden camera into 128 establishments. 37 sold. That's almost 30-percent. Not good. Officers consider that a failure. The stores will be cited. They'll never say it publicly, but some of the stores could consider that fine just a cost of doing business. Which is where, once again, parents -- you come into play. It's what we said when we started this SpeakOut editorial: OPEN YOUR EYES. Teenagers are drinking. Stores are selling. And Prom season is approaching. Talk to your kids about this issue. Ultimately, the buck must stop with you.

Speak Out: Domestic Violence

Pushing, yelling, hitting...Constant threatening. These are symptoms of abuse. If it's not stopped in its tracks early, it could lead to tragedy. Just a few weeks ago police charged this man with shooting and killing his teenage girlfriend. She was an Olympic High School cheerleader. Police call it domestic violence. That's a perfect example of a violent relationship starting earlier than anyone expects. Parents, please take note. One out of three teenagers is a victim of domestic violence... One out of three. Recently staff from Charlotte Mecklenburg schools talked with boys and girls in middle school about the signs of abuse. The question was asked if they ever witnessed abuse... almost all of them raised their hands. One even confessed he knew of domestic violence happening between a boyfriend and girlfriend at school. We say enough is enough. If you are in a relationship that causes you harm.... walk away. Teenagers if you are in a relationship where someone has to control you... walk away. And if you know domestic violence is happening in a friend's life, or if you are in a relationship that is abusive, get help... call United Family Services at 704-332-2513. It could be the break up that saves your life.

Speak Out: Keep The Faith

We concluded a recent editorial on the sour economy with the phrase "Keep the Faith." We believe that things will get better. Two days ago, members of our Jewish community remembered the faith of their forefathers as the Passover celebration began. This weekend, millions of Christians in America and around the world celebrate their holiest of days, Good Friday and Easter. Christians believe that Jesus Christ came into this world as God's only Son...sacrificed His life in atonement for man's sins...and was resurrected as an example of God's plan for His followers. It's not a coincidence that Easter takes place as Spring arrives. It's a time of renewal, fresh hope, and anticipation of good things to come. This Spring, we're faced with monumental challenges. More difficult days lie ahead for our nation and our local communities. Your family may not been directly affected, but chances are you know a family that has and you may still be concerned that yours could be at some point. But Passover and Easter remind us there is a greater power we can turn to for strength, guidance, and comfort. We know that, over time, good will win out, evil cannot prevail, and that, ultimately, a better life lies ahead. As an Editorial Board, we understand that you may not share these particular beliefs. But to those who do, we say "Happy Easter." And to all our viewers, whatever your religious affiliation, we say again, "Keep the Faith."

Speak Out: Carbon Motors

Is this just another ploy to keep Charlotte smaller than Raleigh or truly an oversight by our newly elected Governor Beverly Perdue? Recently a new automobile company, Carbon Motors announced a short list of five U-S states. These states have been chosen as candidates for potential manufacturing headquarters of Carbon Motors. The company even said it was looking specifically at Charlotte. Carbon Motors Corporation focuses on a highly specific mission: developing and manufacturing environmentally-safe law enforcement patrol vehicle. The vehicles are built specifically for Police purposes and provide a green way to fight crime. The company says it'll bring in 10-thousand jobs! If 10,000 jobs sounds too good to be true, it might be for Charlotte. The company requested of these five states -- Georgia, Indiana, Michigan, South Carolina and North Carolina -- a letter from the Governor confirming their state's interest. North Carolina was the only state without a response. When WBTV contacted the CEO of Carbon Motors, he said even a phone call would have sufficed. The Governor's office had no comment about the matter. This is not the time to be silent. All cities and states should seek every opportunity to prosper. If you believe Charlotte needs Carbon Motors we encourage you to write to the company. Contact information: contact@carbonmotors.com and the corporate phone number is (404) 806-9906, ext. 713. Mailing Address - Carbon Motors Corporation - 75 5th Street NW - Suite 100 - Atlanta, GA 30308 USA. Don't stand by and wait for the Governor to decide what's good for Charlotte, you decide.

Speak Out: Waiting For Justice

They say time heals all wounds. The Clark family says they've had time...now they need justice. Earlier this week we sat down with Bob and Elona Clark. Their son Sean, a Charlotte-Mecklenburg police officer, was shot and killed *over two years ago*. So was his partner, Officer Jeff Shelton. The Clarks say they believe in the court system, but are frustrated with how long it takes Mecklenburg County to set a trial. As of now, no date is set. Few cases are more high-profile than a double murder...of two officers...who died...protecting us. Last time Mecklenburg County had a capital punishment case involving the death of two officers... this was back in the '90's... it took less than a year to go to trial. We ask...Shouldn't our justice system be getting better not worse? Officers Clark and Shelton left behind wives and families. They left behind a mourning department. When a fellow badge falls, a deep blue line of brotherhood emerges. Clark and Shelton also left behind a city of faithful citizens...Who can ever forget these images? Thousands of people lining the streets for funeral processions. Despite our differences at times, these deaths made *us* come together in a remarkably honorable way. It has been two years, plus. To the prosecutors in charge: Please move forward. Get to trial. Not just for the city and C-M-P-D...but for the families sitting around, consumed with when justice will be met.

Speak Out: Street Racing

Street racing isn't just a thrill in the moment -- it's a deadly form of lawbreaking. People die. Sometimes even those who are innocent, as we recently witnessed. The video of this early April wreck in southwest Mecklenburg County makes us sick. What a senseless way for three people to die. Street racing is unpredictable and cannot be tolerated. Let us say that again -- It cannot be tolerated. This ain't American Graffiti or "Happy Days" -- the three innocent victims prove that. Keep in mind, it's also a hard crime to police. Officers can't anticipate speed racing -- They can only respond after the fact. That's why we need stronger deterrents. The outcry for stiffer penalties should be deafening. Hit those caught street racing where it hurts most to them -- Take away their licenses. Confiscate cars. Take away the privilege of driving. And be rest assured, driving is a privilege. Not a right. Any street racer is a potential killer and we should treat him as such. As we've just seen, the line between potential killer and actual killer is razor thin. Parents, implore your children not to race. Use this recent crash as a lesson. Doesn't matter whether you're the best driver in the world -- speed kills. We say "zero tolerance" and stiffer penalties. Come down hard...REAL HARD!

Speak Out: Sexting

A picture taken with a camera phone. Nothing to it, huh? But in just that instant, lives can be changed forever. Some teenagers have been using camera phones to send sexually provocative pictures to each other. It's called "Sexting". Sexting often starts with young girls sending pictures of themselves to boys. Problem is, once you send that picture out, you can never - I repeat NEVER - get it back. You also have no control over what happens to it. You break up with the guy and he wants to get even...He can send it to friends or put it online. THAT presents another serious situation. Teens who pass along pictures of their underage friends are being charged as sex offenders - a felony crime. Just having the pictures on your phone is considered child pornography. Prison time. On the registered sex offender list. Kids have always done daring, crazy things. But in this case, the punishment may be too harsh for the crime. Here's the bottom line. We live in a new technological age. Cameras are everywhere. The internet shows everything. Talk to your teenagers...tell them that they must be smarter. DON'T ever take sexually explicit pictures of themselves, nor send them to anyone. Treat yourself with more respect. In an instant, your life can be changed FOREVER!

Speak Out: Lightning Fast Change

Less than three months into a four-year term, it would be unfair to pass judgment on the Obama administration. But this much we do know: He campaigned on "CHANGE" and the majority of American voters embraced the concept. Make no mistake, change is coming at a lightning-fast pace. At this early juncture, we believe it's fair to ask: "Are your freedoms being enhanced or attacked?" There's always been a line in the sand between the public and private sectors. Today, the reach of government into our lives extends further than ever. Some would argue it's grasp extends TOO far. Ask yourself: Does our government have the right to meddle in the details of private contracts? Under what authority is the US government now in the home loan business? Should the federal government really insure the warranty of a car purchased from an ailing US car maker? Are these really meant to be functions of our central government? Our leaders are elected to uphold the US Constitution, not rewrite it. Agree or disagree with what is happening in our nation's capitol, we urge each American to FIGURE OUT what's going on. Let the president, your senators, your congressional representative know what you think.

Get involved. This is no time for apathy. No time to sit idly by. Change is coming at a lightning-fast pace.

Speak Out: Show Us The Money

School boards all across North Carolina are saying... "Show us the money!" We're asking... "What's the holdup?" Superintendents say there is another pot of "untouched" federal stimulus money out there. That money is intended to support the classrooms. School chiefs say they are waiting for the governor and state government to decide how to distribute these millions and millions of stimulus dollars approved weeks ago by Congress. Within a matter of days school districts will be voting on their budgets for next school year. They'll have to vote knowing extra money is out there with their school district's name on it. They'll know that money could be used to buy new textbooks, save teachers' jobs or support other educational services...and yet...they'll have to vote not being able to depend on it. We think it's ironic. It's ironic the state wants us to pay our taxes on time and fulfill our obligations in a timely manner. But when it comes to returning the responsibility, they take their time. Politicians...you were elected to serve the people. You were elected to make lives better. We say communicate with the school districts immediately...figure out the stimulus money and let superintendents stop playing guessing games.

Speak Out: United Way Board

Weeks ago we aired a Speak Out editorial about the United Way. Stop dragging your feet, we said. Open your books fully. We're now adding another request: Ask questions. Former United Way C-E-O Gloria Pace King is accused of spending large amounts of money on trips, meals and "extras." Things like Panthers tickets and high-end hotel rooms. King's attorney says the board approved all her expenses. Some former board members say that might be true...but they didn't know the details about each expense. To that we say... "Why not?" Why didn't you know details? You're supposed to ask questions. Don't just go with the flow. Know what you're voting for. Make sure you understand. King was well-known as a great fundraiser. Some of her board members represented United Way member organizations. Could it be they didn't want to cross her for fear it would affect how much money their charities would get? Maybe. But even so...even if it's tough to stand up to someone in charge...even if that person has an intense personality...That's your job. It's your job to know what you're approving. You, the board, are the checks and balances. Even if it's difficult, you must question what you aren't sure of. Especially -- especially!, we say -- if it's charitable donations you are helping spend.

Speak Out: Making A Difference

In the 1976 movie, Network, a fictional newsman implores viewers to shout from their windows: "I'm mad as hell and I'm not going to take this anymore!" Well, that seems to be happening in our community. In the last month alone, you railed against excessive government spending and high taxes... You decried the senseless violence which killed yet another promising, innocent teenager... You demonstrated against - you were even arrested for! -- protesting the expansion of a North Carolina power plant... And you rallied around a school superintendent you felt was unjustly removed from his position. Those are just 4 examples. There are dozens more. Point being, people are speaking out more and more, and we think that's a great thing. Does it always mean the issues are resolved the way you like? No. But it does get your point heard - by government officials, by private industry, and by your fellow citizens. Over the past couple months, you've got people thinking. Your ripple of protest can become a wave of dissent. Consider the alternative - If you'd said nothing, done nothing, what would have happened? Absolutely nothing. Status quo; no change. And so we say again: speak out on the issues that concern you. Write letters, make calls, go to meetings. We hear you. Rest assured, you ARE making a difference.

Speak Out: Summer Camps / Activities

End of Grade testing is this week....School is almost out. What are you going to do with your children? It's important to get your kids involved in something. Why? Watch this... (VIDEO FROM YMCA OF GREATER CHARLOTTE:) "This summer Thousands thousands of local kids will be out of school. Many will spend part or all of their day unsupervised. Some kids might find trouble violence vandalism...experiment...drugs...cigarettes...alcohol...connect with a gang. What if all they need to avoid trouble is a better choice? Play Sports Clay Sketch Paint...friends...connect with a positive role model. Kids will do the right thing if given better choices. You can give them a choice...You can give them a chance."(Nick Simonette:) Catchy, huh? That video is from the YMCA - the leading summer camp group in our area. But there are hundreds - and when I say hundreds, I mean hundreds and hundreds and hundreds of other camps and activities out there. (Click on the YMCA video link to the right for a sample of what's available.) A list and comprehensive database is on WBTV.com right now. We've also posted information about financial aid and scholarships for various camps. Go to WBTV.com...Click on "In Your Community"...Then click on "Summer Camps/Activities." No matter your situation, we think it's important for you to help keep kids active AND safe!

Speak Out: Memorial Day

Memorial Day Weekend is the traditional kick-off to summer. Families often take advantage of it for a cookout or quick getaway now that school's winding down. But several school systems, including CMS, will be using THIS Memorial Monday as a snow make-up day. And a number of schools will spend part of their time teaching students about Memorial Day itself. We applaud them for this. Seriously, how many of us today know the origins of this holiday? Or take time to truly celebrate it? Memorial Day began as "Decoration Day" just after the Civil War. The "official" birthplace is listed as Waterloo, New York, although other remembrances began at about the same time. It was designed to help lift the spirits of troops who had lost comrades in that war by decorating graves of the fallen with flowers. Following World War I, Memorial Day was expanded to include American casualties of any war or military action. But more important than the facts are the people we remember....Men and women...husbands, wives...sons and daughters...who laid down their lives to protect the United States, or who died so that those in other countries might also live free. To those departed - and their families - we say "thank you." And on Monday at 3 p.m., we encourage you to join your fellow Americans for a national moment of remembrance. For the ultimate sacrifice these heroes made, it's the very least we can do.

Speak Out: The Big Switch

The BIG SWITCH to digital television is only days away. On June 12th, local broadcast television stations, including WBTV, will stop transmitting analog, over-the-air signals. If you have cable or satellite service, you're fine. However, if you have an antennae or a TV without a digital tuner, you'll need to get a converter box. You may have heard that coupons for the converter boxes had run out. Well, the good news is, they're available again. And if you HAVE received a coupon, but it's expired, you can now apply for a replacement. Just go to dtv-2009-dot-gov...or, you can call 1-888-DTV-2009. You also have a few other options: Buy a TV with a digital tuner...OR Subscribe to cable or satellite service. The day is almost here! Do not delay. For more information, go to wbtv.com and click on The DTV Transition.

Speak Out: Continue to Give

The ripple effect from the United Way controversy continues to adversely affect many worthy agencies and programs. With contributions way off, difficult decisions on "who gets the money" are being made. Add in the down economy and people losing jobs...and the situation becomes even more serious. Organizations trying to help the growing numbers of those "less fortunate" need your help and my help more than ever. Perhaps you can't give as much as you did in the past. That's O.K. Every dollar counts. If you can't afford to give money, the gift of volunteering your time is just as valuable. Volunteers often say they "get back" much more than they "give." Helping others is a wonderful way to boost your spirits and put things in perspective during troubled times. Look around your neighborhood. There's probably an organization in need of your support close to home. We've also included a link to local agencies on WBTV.com. Hopefully, the economy is starting to rebound. But for now, we've all got to pull together to help take care of our neighbors, and keep our community the kind of place we're proud to call home.

Speak Out: Finish I-485

In February, N.C. Governor Bev Perdue said, "It's my goal to start I-485 by the end of the year and finish soon after that." What she neglected to say is that if this is to happen, there will be some strings attached. Strings like putting other much-needed road projects on hold and diverting those funds to I-485. These projects include Independence Boulevard, the Monroe By-Pass, and the widening of I-85 North. Weddington Mayor Nancy Anderson put it very well in saying a plan like this was akin to "robbing Peter to pay Peter." Charlotte Mayor Pat McCrory weighed in by saying, "That's no way to complete a promise; by stealing from one road to service another in the same region." N.C. Transportation Secretary Gene Conti has told regional transportation planners, "We have no magic pot of money in Raleigh." Conti did not rule out scrounging up enough money without harming other road projects, but said it would be tough. The governor made a commitment and asked Conti to try to deliver on it. Now, is not the time to "try". Now, is the time to make a move. Deliver on what was said and finish I-485.

Speak Out: Charities In Need

I want to read an email sent to SpeakOut after a recent editorial aired about The United Way. "I would like to commend you on your investigation of the United Way in Charlotte and its respective leader and board members," writes John Cole from Lenoir.

"However, perhaps unintentionally, The United Way of Catawba County - which is completely separate from those in your story - are being directly impacted by association." He raises an excellent point. Frankly, it was one we had not thought of until now. The United Way of Central Carolinas has been under great scrutiny for a year. There are lawsuits... questions about high salaries...and concern over its former management. But The United Way is a national organization. Not all branches can be painted with the same broad brush. And in fact, it's not the United Way taking the biggest hit with this story.

It's the charities they help. Those charities are hurting. The people those charities help are hurting even more. If you have the means to do so, still give. Whether it's to The United Way, or directly to a charity of your choice. Help - lots of help - is still needed. And to John, from Lenoir: "Thank you." You're right to say to us, quote, "...that while these two groups share a common name, they have different boards and operate with great autonomy from each other in innumerable ways."

Speak Out: Father's Day

As a father, I can honestly say that being a parent is THE most important job of your life. From the moment your son or daughter comes into this world, it is your responsibility to care for your child AND take an active role in developing the adult they will become. Easier said than done, right? We are all guilty of letting the stress of everyday life weigh heavily on our shoulders. It can take priority over the things that matter most. The simple truth is that the reward that comes from being a father is better than any promotion at work. And the silly ties and coffee mugs that your children give you tomorrow will make you smile on the worst of days. Giving and receiving the ties and mugs on Father's Day is the easy part. Listening to our parents is not always so easy. Fathers are notorious for providing "tough love" that always stings at first. As we get older, we know that "sting" comes with the wisdom of experience only a parent can have to show us exactly what we need. If you are not a father, but feel that you could fill the role of a "dad" in the life of a young person, there are great ways to get involved through the "Big Brothers-Big Sisters" organization.

There are lots of young people out there that could use your praise, advice and maybe "tough love" as they grow. Tomorrow, as we celebrate, take the time to embrace your role as a father, or to let your father know you appreciate all he has done to help you along the way. Happy Father's Day!

Speak Out: Raising Taxes

$790 million...$900 million...$1 ½ BILLION... That's how much the North Carolina House, Senate, and Governor want to "increase revenues" for the next fiscal year. Let me translate..."increase revenues" is government-speak for "raise taxes." To which we ask, "What are you kidding?!" The state's unemployment rate is at a record 11%. People are already hurting. You want to raise the tax on money they don't have? The government's proposals include additional income taxes, a higher sales tax rate, and taxes on goods and services that have never been taxed before. Auto and home repairs... Movie and sports tickets...Even haircuts....The professed goal is to save teaching positions, which is certainly a noble endeavor. But you're going about it the wrong way. Instead of raising taxes, take a sharper knife to budget items like the $3 million slated for oyster reefs and sanctuaries...re-think that million for "historically UNDERUTILIZED businesses..."and shave a couple of million from the $18 million you're donating to the N.C. Biotechnology Center near Raleigh. Supporting education is a terrific goal. But don't do it on the backs of those who can least afford it. Not now...Not ever.

Speak Out: Burke County Mess

You might have heard...things are a little rowdy in Burke County. It all centers around decisions made by school board politicians. Check out the chain of events: In April, the Burke County school board terminates a popular superintendent but gives no reason....the community is outraged. Soon after...uproar over a school board member sending racist emails consisting of the "N" word. Days later a board member resigns. Then the superintendent sues for breach of contract. Crowds at school board meetings are so big -- and passionate -- security is on-hand. Once, 9-1-1 was even called. Most recently is the news the board can't decide who should fill the vacant school board seat. What a mess. And -- really -- what a financial burden to the county. Several lawsuits have been filed. This shows how important it is to research candidates before you vote for them. Some Burke County school board members are up for re-election this year. Remember, Burke County voters, you hold all their power in your hands. We think that Burke County school board members need to give the reason they are getting rid of the superintendent. If it's a legitimate reason in your mind, don't hide behind secrecy. Once you announce the 'why,' maybe you can refocus on educating students and not conducting a media circus.

Speak Out: American Made Patriotism

I'm about to say something you've all heard before. This time, really listen to the words. "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all." The Pledge of Allegiance has been around since 1892. It's about respect, unity and American pride. So this July 4th, when you salute the flag...take a quick check of the flag itself. Look for the tag. See where -- see what country -- your American flag was made. It's a small act, but one big in symbolism. Other countries started an increase in production of American flags after September 11th...it was a supply and demand issue. So many Americans were buying them, importers saw a chance to make money. Nowadays, you can find not just flags...but all kinds of red, white and blue products made in Mexico, Thailand and China. Other places profiting off our patriotism. It's something to think about this patriotic holiday. Now is the time to celebrate our independence and to support the United States of America...and the Republic for which it stands.

60 MINUTES

- 04/05/09      "Closing The Clinic" - a report on how the economic crisis is affecting society's most vulnerable, the poor, who rely on public hospitals for care. This report focuses on University Medical Center, a primary source of charity care in Las Vegas, Nevada, as it is forced by budget cuts to close services that are duplicated by private hospitals -- including its outpatient clinic for chemotherapy patients and what these patients and health care professionals are doing in the wake of this downsizing. Interviewed are: Kathy Silver, CEO, University Medical Center; Dr. Nick Spiritos, Women's Cancer Center Foundation; and cancer patients Helen Sharp, Roy Scales, Livia Ralphs, Yolanda Coleman. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Shawn Efran, Catherine Herrick)
- "Torture In Iran" - an interview with Ahmad Btchi, one of the most famous dissidents in Iran, who describes how he was tortured during his eight years in an Iranian prison and how he was finally able to escape. Also interviewed: Lily Mazahery, an Iranian-American attorney; and Hadi Ghaemi, International Campaign for Human Rights in Iran. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Robert G. Anderson)
- "Dolly" - an interview with country music superstar Dolly Parton, who talks about her childhood, her career and the Broadway production of her film, "9 to 5". (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning, Diane Beasley)
- Correction: "The Internet Is Infected" (OAD: 03/29/09)
- Update: "Poisoned" (OAD: 03/29/09)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Weighs In On The National Debt" - Andy on millions, billions and trillions
- 04/12/09      "The DEKA Arm" - a report on the DEKA arm, one of the breakthroughs of a Pentagon program called "Revolutionizing Prosthetics". This arm, one of the biggest innovations in prosthetics since World War II, provides amputees the ability to pick up small, delicate objects, something not available in arm prosthetics. Currently heading to clinical trials, it may soon be available to the more than 200 veteran arm amputees from the Afghanistan and Iran conflicts. Interviewed: Fred Downs, head of prosthetics, Veterans Administration; Dr. Geoffrey Ling, Army Colonel/neurologist; Dean Kamen, inventor; Chuck Hildreth, amputee/DEKA volunteer; Josh Bleill, leg amputee; and Jonathan Kuniholm, Duke University biochemical engineer/amputee. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)
- "Gun Rush" - despite the current economic downturn, fear of tighter gun-control laws under the Obama administration have fueled an increase in gun and ammunition sales. At a Virginia gun show, gun proponents and anti-gun activists discuss why the public feels the need to possess guns and what could be fueling the sales, the gun show "loophole" in Virginia and 30 other states that allows people who are not gun dealers to sell firearms without background checks, and the Virginia Tech massacre. Interviewed: Philip Van Cleve (gun proponent); Gerald Massengil, former Police Superintendent of Virginia; Lily Habtu, Virginia Tech survivor; Omar Samaha, brother of Virginia Tech victim Reema Samaha; and Senator Dianne Feinstein (D-CA). (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
- "Steve Wynn" - a profile of casino mogul Steve Wynn, who despite today's bad economy, has had to slash employees' pay and room prices but does whatever he has to do to get customers to his new hotel, Encore, which opened in 2008. He reflects on how Las Vegas has changed from just a gambling town when he built the first luxury resort to a vacation destination; his business success; and retinitis pigmentosa, an eye disease that is slowly robbing him of his sight. Also interviewed: Steve's wife and business partner, Elaine. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Catherine Olian)

- 04/19/09      "401K Recession" - recent losses in the stock market are drawing attention to the shortcomings of a retirement system that has jeopardized the financial security of millions: 401(k)s. Originally they were planned as a savings plan to supplement Social Security and pensions and were never created to be the mainstay of workers' retirements, but became just that -- effectively replacing pension funds. Interviewed are: investors Alan Weir, Kathleen Coleman, Terry and Donna McNally; David Wray, President, Profit Sharing/401k Council of America and lobbyist; Brooks Hamilton; and Rep. George Miller (D-CA). (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen)
- "Cold Fusion Is Hot Again" - a report on cold fusion - nuclear energy like that which powers the sun, but made at room temperatures on a tabletop, which in 1989, was presented as a revolutionary new source of energy that promised to be cheap, limitless and clean but was quickly dismissed as junk science. Today, scientists believe that cold fusion, now most often called low temperature fusion or a nuclear effect, could lead to monumental breakthroughs in energy production. Includes interviews with: Michael McKubre, electrochemist, SRI International; Richard Garwin, physicist; Rob Duncan, expert in measuring energy; and Martin Fleischman, electrochemist and originator of the term cold fusion. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)
- "Blood Brothers" - a profile of Francisco Rivera Ordonez and his younger brother, Cayetano -- the only brothers in Spanish history to be top matadors at the same time. Descended from a long line of bullfighters, Francisco has been fighting for thirteen years, while Cayetano, for only three. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon, Paul Bollinger) (see also "The Family Business" (OAD: 1/11/98), 60 MINUTES' initial profile of Francisco Rivera Ordonez) (OAD: 10/19/08)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Taxes: Have You Paid Your Fair Share?" - Andy has a solution for dealing with tax cheaters
- 04/26/09      "Vice President Biden" - a profile of Vice-President Joe Biden after his first 100 days in office: how he's dealing with the transition; his adjustment from being a powerful senator to being the man standing behind the president; on being a team player; and his family. Included are interviews with President Barack Obama; Secretary of State Hillary Clinton, and Biden's wife, Dr. Jill Biden. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen M. Sughrue)
- "Powered By Coal" - a report on coal, American's most abundant and cheap fossil fuel. Coal generates nearly half the electricity in the United States and the world, but it is the dirtiest fuel of all when it comes to carbon dioxide or CO2 -- the leading greenhouse gas. The Obama administration has declared that CO2 is a threat to human health and plans to impose limits, but making coal safe will come at an astronomical cost. During the campaign, both sides endorsed "clean coal" or carbon capture and sequestration technology. Clean coal takes the carbon dioxide, turns it into a liquid and pumps it underground. Virtually everyone agrees that this is the only way we have to make coal safe. Interviewed: Jim Rogers, CEO, Duke Energy; Jim Hansen, NASA climate scientist; Dan Kammen, physicist and energy expert; Joe Romm; and Floyd Robb. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Joel Bach, David Gelber)
- "The Orphanage" - a visit to the David Sheldrick Wildlife Trust, the Kenya-based orphanage for elephants who were abandoned when they were less than two years old. Includes interviews with: Dame Daphne Sheldrick, the orphanage founder who has been working with elephants for 50 years and Edwin Lusichi, head of the elephant keepers. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon) (OAD: 04/09/06; 1st rebroadcast: 12/24/06; 2nd rebroadcast: 12/21/08 - a re-edited version.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/04/09      PREEMPTION

04/11/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "American Girl, Italian Nightmare" - a follow-up to "A Long Way From Home" (OAD: 04/12/08). Amanda Knox, a 21-year-old American exchange student in Perugia, Italy, has now been on trial there for three months, charged -- along with her Italian boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito -- with the November 2007 murder of Amanda's British roommate, Meredith Kercher. Although a local thief, Rudy Guede, was tried and found guilty of the murder, he implicated Knox and Sollecito in the crime. Knox and Sollecito say they are innocent. The prosecutor, Giuliano Mignini, maintains that all were part of a drug-fueled sex party that turned into a ritualistic satanic murder. Author Doug Preston recounts how, in 2006, prosecutor Mignini accused him of being an accessory to the same type of murder, after he co-authored (with Mario Spezi) "The Monster of Florence," a non-fiction account of a series of murders between 1974 and 1985. Preston and Spezi suspected a lone serial killer. This contradicted Mignini's theory that a satanic sect was responsible for the murders. The authors were accused of falsifying evidence and of being part of the satanic cult. After an intense interrogation, Preston was released without charge; Spezi, after spending three weeks in prison, was also released. Mignini -- who follows the satanic conspiracy theories of Italian blogger Gabriella Carlizzi, a woman who claims to speak to a deceased priest -- continues as prosecutor in the Amanda Knox trial, although he himself is currently under indictment for a series of crimes, including abuse of office, obstruction of justice, and illegal wiretapping of journalists. Amanda Knox faces a maximum sentence of life imprisonment; if she's convicted of murder there will be an automatic appeal. Includes interviews with: Nick Pisa, British journalist; Edda Mellas and Curt Knox, Amanda's parents; Paul Ciolino, Chicago private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paolo Sofriso, Italian investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Nathan Abraham, friend of Meredith Kercher; Dr. Larry Kobilinsky, forensic scientist; Doug Preston, author. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Joe Halderman, Doug Longhini)

04/18/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: Death Without Mercy" (9:00 - 10:00pm) - On November 29, 2005, firemen put out a fire in a house in Morgantown, West Virginia -- and discovered in a bedroom the charred remains of Jimmy Michael, who lived there with his second wife Shelly, a registered nurse. A medical examiner's report found that Jimmy was dead before the blaze had even started, and that he had been injected with a lethal dose of a drug called rocuronium, used in hospital procedures when doctors need to temporarily paralyze muscles. Police investigation led to the arrest of Shelly Michael for the murder of her husband. At her trial, the jury found her guilty of first degree murder, but included a recommendation of mercy. She will be eligible for parole in 2027. Among those interviewed are: Shelly Michael; Paul Mezzanotte, Morgantown police detective; Stephanie Estel, first wife of Jimmy Michael; Dennis and Ruth Michael, parents of Jimmy Michael. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

04/18/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Curious Case of Colonel Shue" (10:00 - 11:00pm) - In April 2003, Air Force Colonel Philip Shue died in a violent car crash when his vehicle struck some trees alongside a Texas interstate highway. When his body was first pulled from the car, investigators found that there was a six-inch vertical gash in his chest, both his nipples had been removed, and duct tape was wrapped around both his wrists and his boots. After a year of investigation, all the agencies involved -- the Air Force, and both local and state police -- agreed that Col. Shue, a psychiatrist, had suffered a psychological breakdown and committed suicide. A grand jury, convened at the request of the district attorney, found no evidence of any crime and believed the ruling of suicide should stand. However, Tracy Shue, his widow, is adamant in her insistence that her husband had been abducted and tortured, and had then somehow broken free. Tracy thinks that Philip's first wife, Nancy, who still held insurance policies on his life worth one million dollars, should be investigated. Nancy had refused to cancel these policies, even after Philip claimed that he had received an anonymous letter warning him of a plot against his life by Nancy and her current husband, Donald Timpxon. Nancy was also a board-certified sex therapist who had studied the practice of sadomasochism. Two months after Philip's death, Tracy filed a civil lawsuit seeking to prevent Nancy from collecting the million dollar death benefit, and seeking damages from the insurance companies for not previously canceling the policies. As part of the lawsuit, Tracy's lawyers demanded that Nancy answer their questions, but she took the Fifth Amendment more than twenty times, refusing to answer any questions about murder or motives or torture. In 2008, the civil lawsuit went to trial. Nancy had been dropped as a defendant, as had one of the insurance companies. Both Nancy and Tracy received million dollar death settlements of Philip Shue's policies. With regard to damages, the presiding judge ruled in favor of the insurance company. But he also ruled that the evidence considered by the Court substantiated a finding that the death of Philip Shue was indeed a homicide. Nancy Shue declined repeated requests from 48 HOURS to be interviewed. No law enforcement agency has ever named her or her husband as suspects or persons of interest in the case. Includes interviews with: Tracy Shue, widow of Philip Shue; Nina Williard, friend of Tracy and Philip; Doctor Vincent Di Maio, chief medical examiner, Bexar County, Texas; Dr. Cyril Wecht, pathologist; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Lieutenant Roger Anderson, lead officer for the military's investigation of the case; George Brown, friend of Philip Shue. 04/25/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Craigslit: Classified For Murder?" - a special broadcast devoted to the Craigslit murder investigation, examining the crimes and evidence, as well as the psyche of accused killer, Philip Markoff. Featured are: 1) a report by Richard Schlesinger on the suspect Philip Markoff, including interviews with friends Morgan Houston and Andrew Hookway, plus a forensic psychiatrist Dr. Michael Welner, who believes Markoff was not leading a double life but suddenly embarked on a crime spree. 2) Peter Van Zant obtains details about the case with Boston Globe reporter Maria Cramer and private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant Joe Moura. Prosecutors traced an e-mail to an IP address which led them to the suspect. Police also located a gun hidden in a textbook and trophies from the victims. Also, an interview with Trisha Leffler, a Las Vegas prostitute who advertised on Craigslit and was the first victim: robbed at gunpoint by the suspect four days before the murder of Julissa Brissman. 3) Harold Dow reports on the dark side of the digital world. Included are interviews with: an erotic masseuse who says business started booming after she placed an ad on Craigslit; with Kristin Davis, a New York City madam who claims she hired Brissman to do high-end erotic massage; and with Cook County (Chicago) Sheriff Thomas Dart who wants Craigslit shut down. 4) Correspondent Troy Roberts with a report on the similar tragedy of 13-year old Christina Long who met grown men in online chat rooms and was murdered by someone she met online seven years ago. Included is an interview with Craigslit CEO Jim Buckmaster who says that users self-police the site and that it is safe. 5) a report on the life of murder victim Julissa Brissman, a 25-year-old former alcoholic, trying hard to get her life back on track, training to become a substance abuse counselor. Teacher Jack Bennett and fellow student Robert Turner are interviewed by Daniel Sieberg. (C: Peter Van Sant, Richard Schlesinger, Troy Roberts, Harold Dow, Daniel Sieberg - P: Peter Henderson, Paul LaRosa, Allen Alter, Patti Aronofsky, Avi Cohen, Larry Warner, Joshua Yager, Doug Longhini, Alec Sirken, Lisa Freed, Liza Finley, Josh Gelman)

"Poverty: A Time For Sharing" - A presentation and discussion on poverty in Africa, Asia, and Latin America and how Protestant, Catholic and Mennonite Christians, Jews and Muslims -- all sharing a common thread of responding to immediate need and empowering indigenous peoples so they can control their own lives -- serve the poor and confront world poverty. 1) In Africa, a poor child dies of malaria every thirty seconds. Rick Reilly, sports columnist; Elizabeth McKee Gove of the UN Foundation; and Bishop Thomas Bickerton of the United Methodist Church, discuss "Nothing But Nets" -- a grassroots campaign to save lives by raising awareness and funds to purchase and distribute bed nets and save lives. 2) American Jewish World Service works with 400 non-governmental grassroots groups in 36 countries. President Ruth Messinger discusses working on behalf of underprivileged children in India and volunteer Julia Kaminsky speaks of her work in El Salvador. 3) Arli Klassen, Executive Director of the Mennonite Central Committee (MCC) presents a mobile health clinic in Laos; and Jim Rowman, former MCC representative in Kenya describes how building a dam provides a Kenyan village with drinking water in the dry spell. The work of the MCC -- across 66 countries -- stresses service to the poor and non-violence in all conflicts. 4) Islamic Relief (IR) serves the world's poor in 35 countries. Natasha Issak, a fundraiser; and operations manager Yousef Abdallah, discuss training programs set up in Afghanistan to empower the enormous number of widows and orphans created by decades of war. IR's work at a refugee camp in Sudan is also described. 5) Annemarie Reilly, chief of staff of Catholic Relief Services (CRS), the worldwide relief arm of the U.S. Catholic Church, describes CRS work in response to the 2004 tsunami in Indonesia; ongoing work in Ethiopia; working with Mother Teresa's Missionaries of Charity; and the holistic approach used to serve HIV positive people in Zambia. (Producer & Narrator: Ted Holmes. Associate Producer: Mary Catherine Brouder. Executive Producer & Director: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; United States Conference of Catholic Bishops; Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

05/02/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Dark Voyage" - A report on the November 2004 murders of Tom and Jackie Hawks, an Arizona couple who were killed in a well-thought-out, diabolical plot. Former child actor Skylar Deleon feigned interest in buying the couple's yacht and, with the help of accomplices Alonso Machain (a prison guard) and John Fitzgerald Kennedy (a Los Angeles gang member), killed them during a test cruise by tying them to an anchor and throwing them overboard from the yacht off Southern California. During the cruise, the Hawks had been forced to sign over ownership of their yacht and power of attorney for their bank accounts. Police investigation also revealed the involvement of Deleon's wife, Jennifer, in the murder plot. Deleon was found guilty of murder and sentenced to death. His wife was found guilty of first degree murder and sentenced to two life terms in prison. Kennedy was also found guilty and sentenced to death. Machain, who made a full confession, has not been tried; he's hoping for leniency. Included are interviews with: Dave Byington, a Newport Beach, CA detective; Ryan and Matt Hawks, Tom Hawks' sons; Jim Hawks, Tom's brother; Skylar Deleon, the mastermind; Orange County Prosecutor Matt Murphy. (C: Maureen Maher - P: James Stolz)

05/09/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Catch Her If You Can" - A profile of Esther Elizabeth Reed -- also known as Natalie Fisher, Natalie Bowman, Brook Henson and Jennifer Myers. Since 1999, this high school dropout from a small Montana town assumed at least four different identities; scammed her way into Harvard and Columbia, and stole over $100,000 in student loans. In 2006, a federal grand jury in South Carolina handed down an indictment charging her with felony identity theft (in relation to missing person Brook Henson) and student loan fraud. In February 2008, she was finally arrested in a Chicago suburb. She pled guilty to four felonies, and was sentenced to fifty-one months in federal prison. She is scheduled to be released in October 2011. Despite pleading guilty, she could still be charged in other cases. Includes interviews with: Esther Reed; Steve Rambam, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; John Bridge, U.S. Marshal; Walt Wilkins, a U.S. attorney; Edna Strom, Esther Reed's sister; E.J. Reed, her brother; Jim Theriault, her English teacher; Natalie Fisher, sister of Esther's former boyfriend; Brandy Olson, college friend of Esther Reed/ "Natalie Fisher"; John Brushlke, debate coach, California State Fullerton; Frank Abagnale, former con man; Rita Shaghaghi, college roommate of Esther Reed / "Natalie Bowman"; Mitch Avila, professor, California State Fullerton; Lisa Henson, aunt of the real Brook Henson; John Campbell, South Carolina detective; Ann Fitz, attorney for Esther Reed. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 05/16/09      48 HOURS MINI-MYSTERY (untitled) - a six-part, edited version of "Murder For Hire?" (OAD: 05/13/99) and its follow-up, "Justice For Sheila" (OAD: 01/31/00). Sheila Bellush of Sarasota, Florida, was brutally murdered in front of her young children. Police investigation led to the arrest and conviction of her ex-husband, Allen Blackthorne, and three accomplices. Correspondent: Peter Van Sant. The six separate segments are spaced and aired within CRIMETIME SATURDAY, a two-hour program block of encore episodes of various CBS Entertainment series. Each of the six segments of this serialized version is approximately two-to-three minutes in duration. The cumulative duration is approximately 15 minutes.
- 05/16/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Daddy's Girl" - On July 19, 2007, Timothy MacNeil, a prominent defense attorney, was shot to death in his San, Diego, California home. The only witness was his 17-year-old stepdaughter, Brae Hansen, who was found tied up at the scene. She told police that a masked gunman had broken in and committed the murder, but had left her alive. However, further police interrogation of Hansen led to her arrest as a suspect; and she also implicated her brother, Nathan Gann, in the murder. Both suspects confessed separately to participation in plotting the murder of their stepfather, but each accused the other of being the instigator. They were both charged with first degree murder by means of lying in wait -- a special circumstance that carries a mandatory life sentence. Nathan went on trial in November 2008; it resulted in a hung jury. Prosecutors then made the decision to try the siblings at the same time, in the same courtroom, but with two separate juries. Both Hansen and Gann were found guilty by their respective juries. They will both be sentenced on June 19 (2009). Includes interviews with: Brae Hansen, MacNeil's stepdaughter; Nathan Gann, MacNeil's stepson; Kim Mara-Bieda, MacNeil's girlfriend; J.C. Smith and Brett Burkett, San Diego homicide investigators; Rick MacNeil, Timothy's brother; Erin MacNeil Ellison, daughter of Timothy MacNeil; Ricardo Garcia, Nathan's defense attorney; Troy Britt, Brae's defense attorney. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Marcelena Spencer, Gayane Keshishyan, Ira Sulow)
- 05/23/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Mortgage And The Murder" - For nearly a year, twenty-year-old Renee Ohlemacher was suspected in the murder of her parents, Bernadette and Greg, who were shot in their Albuquerque, New Mexico home on the early morning of August 2, 2005. Renee says that, upon hearing the gunshots, she hid in a closet and called the police. Certain that the killer knew the couple, investigators began questioning her every move. Her family also had their doubts about her innocence -- she was set to inherit nearly $1 million from a life insurance policy purchased by her mother. However, no physical evidence linked Renee to the crime. Then, nearly a year later, it was discovered that Ron Santiago, the murdered couple's mortgage broker, had once owned a 9-millimeter Ruger handgun, the same type of gun that had killed the Ohlemachers. Police searched his home and found a 9-millimeter shell casing in a bag in his garage. Santiago was arrested, charged and jailed for the murder, but was later released on bail because of a judge's ruling that the search of Santiago's house was illegal. This decision is being appealed by the District Attorney. Meanwhile, Ohlemacher family members still believe that Renee carried out a plan to murder her parents, and that the true killer is still at large. They have filed a civil suit against both Renee and Ron Santiago in their search for answers. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Paul LaRosa) (OAD: 11/22/08)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Blood and Money On Horseshoe Bay" - a report on the November 2005 murder of Charlie White, a larger-than-life Texas millionaire who lived a lavish lifestyle in Horseshoe Bay, Texas. When police were called to White's lakeside mansion, they found his body, which had been brutally beaten, with an extension cord wrapped around his neck several times. By first impression, White was a very likeable person, but as police investigated his murder, a darker image of White emerged -- one of a cruel man with a dangerous mean streak sharpened by arrogance, alcohol, and women. With an unbridled passion for the fairer sex, White bedded and rated the sexual prowess of over a thousand women, including strippers, prostitutes, and even the girlfriends of his own son Darin, who Charlie used to pick up women to fulfill his needs. As the murder investigation unfolded, police focused on the troubled relationship between father and son and soon settled on Darin as the main suspect. When Darin voluntarily came in for questioning, he admitted to being with Charlie the night he died. Darin claimed that after a trip to Wal-Mart, they returned home, where he and his father got into an argument that turned dangerously violent -- Darin believed that his father was going to kill him. After Darin beat and choked his father, he went upstairs to bed and the next morning, drove to his mother's house in New Mexico. But the Texas Rangers didn't buy Darin's story and found no evidence to show that 73-year-old Charlie put up a fight at all. Arrested for his father's murder, prosecutors maintained that it was a case of premeditated murder. But Darin's attorney, Eddie Shell, maintained that it was a misdemeanor murder and a crime of sudden passion, which carries a much lighter sentence. Shell believed that Darin exploded and killed his father in a fit of rage -- one that was brought on by years of torment and physical abuse. In the end, the jury sentenced Darin White to twenty years confinement in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice Institutional Division for the murder of his father, Charlie White. Darin will be eligible for parole in ten years. (C: Peter Van Saut - P: Jay Young, Jenna Jackson) (OAD: 11/01/08)

- 06/14/09      "The Man Who Knew" - an interview with Harry Markopolos, a Boston financial analyst and fraud investigator who repeatedly told the Securities and Exchange Commission that Wall Street financier Bernard L. Madoff's investment fund was a fraud. He was ignored, and investors lost billions of dollars. Also interviewed: former Madoff customers Shelly Ludlow and Len Forrest, who lost their investments; and Attorney David Boies. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court, Keith Shannon) (OAD: 03/01/09)
- "For Better or For Worse" - a report on the current plan of the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Service to deport several hundred widows and a few widowers -- foreigners who'd been married to American citizens when the American died. A foreigner who marries a United States citizen is entitled to become a U.S. resident, but Immigration claims that a widow is not a wife and that if the widow did not complete the process while the husband was alive, she cannot remain in the country -- even if their children were born in the United States. (C: Bob Simon - P: Robert G. Anderson) (OAD: 11/23/08 - Includes an update.)
- "Alice Waters" - an interview with Alice Waters, who has been cooking and preaching the virtues of fresh food grown in an environmentally friendly way for decades. A world-class restaurant -- Chez Panisse in Berkeley, California -- and eight cookbooks to her credit, Waters has become famous for her "slow food" approach, an antidote to fast food. Also interviewed: San Francisco Mayor Gavin Newsom; and John Lagier, farmer. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Ruth Streeter) (OAD: 03/15/09)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "If The Shoe Fits..." - finding shoes that fit (OAD: 03/20/05)
- 06/21/09      "A Clean Version Of Hell" - an exclusive look inside ADX (United States Penitentiary Administrative Maximum), a secretive maximum security prison in Colorado, used to house the nation's most dangerous criminals -- including terrorists. Includes an interview with Robert Hood, former warden of "Supermax". (C: Scott Pelley - P: Henry Schuster) (OAD: 10/14/07 - Includes an update.)
- "The War Next Door" - a report on the drug cartel fueled violence in Mexico, where kidnappings, torture, and brutal beheadings have become common. President Felipe Calderon has declared war on the well-armed gangs, whose military-quality weapons come mostly from U.S. dealers. Interviewed: Janet Napolitano, U.S. Secretary of Homeland Security; Claudia Wallace and Maria Isabel, whose brother/son Hugo was kidnapped and killed by a gang; Mexico's Attorney General Eduardo Medina-Mora; Sandra Avila Beltran, one of Mexico's most famous alleged drug traffickers. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: Kyra Darnton, Anya Bourg, Ana Real) (OAD: 03/01/09)
- "LeBron" - an interview/profile of Cleveland Cavaliers basketball superstar LeBron James, who at only 24, is already among an elite handful of athletes who command tens of millions a year in playing and marketing fees. Also interviewed: Gloria James, LeBron's mother; Maverick Carter, CEO of LeBron's company. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II) (OAD: 03/29/09)

- 06/28/09 "The Cheaters" - a joint investigation by 60 MINUTES and The Washington Post on cheating in the popular and lucrative -- though illegal in the United States -- world of Internet poker. When online poker players suspected cheating on two popular Internet sites -- Absolute Poker and Ultimate Bet -- the managers of the mostly unregulated $18 billion Internet gambling industry failed to respond to their complaints, forcing the online poker community to undertake its own investigation. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Ira Rosen) (OAD: 11/30/08)
- "Mind Reading" - a report on the advancements in neuroscience with regards to monitoring brain activity linked to certain thoughts, making it now possible, on a very basic scale, to read a person's mind. Also discussed is how this technology can be used to help solve crimes and for marketing purposes. Those interviewed are: neuroscientist Marcel Just and his colleague Tom Mitchell from Carnegie-Mellon University; 60 MINUTES associate producer Meghan Frank, who took part in a brain scan demonstration; neuroscientist John Dylan Haynes from the Bernstein Center in Berlin; Paul Root Wolpe, Director of the Center for Ethics at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia; neuroscientist Gemma Calvert, co-founder of the London company Neurosense (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein) (OAD: 01/04/09)
- "Gorongosa" - a profile of American entrepreneur Greg Carr, who is using his great wealth to try to help some of the poorest people in Africa by attracting more tourists to their neighborhood -- the beautiful national park of Gorongosa in Mozambique. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 06/02/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Deep Secret" - On June 21, 1977, eighteen-year-old Jeffrey Klee of Coral Springs, Florida, went out drinking with his best friend, David Cusanelli -- and never returned home. When police questioned Cusanelli, he told them that Jeff had dropped him off and then had headed home himself that night. Eventually investigators assumed that Jeff had run away. Thirty years passed. Then, in 2008, Klee's van was discovered in a Coral Springs canal which was being dredged for stolen vehicles. It contained Klee's skeletal remains and some personal possessions. Just two weeks prior to this discovery, Danna Holmes, a Coral Springs resident, told police that, in the year 2000, an inebriated man in a Coral Springs bar told her that he had accidentally killed his best friend. When she was shown a photo lineup to identify that man, she picked out David Cusanelli. Police interrogation of Cusanelli and his brother Carl eventually elicited the admission that David Cusanelli had gotten into a fight with Klee over Ginny Healy Spence, and that Klee had sustained an accidental injury to his head and died -- after which the Cusanellis pushed the van, containing Klee's body, into the canal. Because there is no evidence to suggest homicide, no charges were made against the Cusanellis. Also, according to 1977 Florida law, there was then a three year statute of limitations for manslaughter charges. The Klees cannot even sue in civil court for wrongful death -- the statute of limitations has also run out on that. The Florida legislature recently defeated a proposal to eliminate the statute of limitations in wrongful death cases. Includes interviews with: Ginny Healy Spence, Jeff Klee's girlfriend; Bob Vernon, retired Coral Springs police detective; Flossie Klee, mother of Jeff Klee; Jeff's sisters Laurel Klee (Steele), Cyndy Klee, and DeeDee Klee; Danna Holmes, Coral Springs resident; Dave Weissman, Coral Springs detective; Mitch Polay, lawyer for the Cusanelli brothers; Shari Tate Jenkins, Florida State Assistant Attorney. 06/06/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lady In The Harbor" - A report on the September 2006 murder of aspiring actress Barbara Mullenix, whose body was discovered in the water at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club in California. She had been stabbed fifty-two times. An initial suspect was her ex-husband, Bruce Mullenix. Despite their divorce, Bruce had agreed to let Barbara and their 17-year-old daughter Rachael move into his small Huntington Beach apartment, a situation that worsened when Barbara would drink and become verbally abusive. But Bruce was soon ruled out as a suspect because he had been out of town on a business trip. Investigators' attention then turned to Rachael and her 21-year-old boyfriend, Ian Allen, who were nowhere to be found after the murder. When they were finally apprehended and questioned, Ian admitted to killing Barbara, and Rachael was also accused of the murder. Both Ian and Rachael were tried separately. Each was found guilty of first degree murder, and each was sentenced to 25 years to life. Includes interviews with Bruce Mullenix; Rachael Mullenix; Newport police investigators Steve Mack and Joe Cartwright; Kelsey Douglas, friend of Rachael Mullenix; Sonia Balleste, Orange County prosecutor; David Cohn, Rachael's attorney; Sean Enloe, pathologist; Dr. Al Ravitz, child psychiatrist. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ira Sutow, Allen Allen) (OAD: 01/24/09 - includes brief update in the form of an onscreen text graphic at the conclusion.)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Preacher's Wife" - In April 2006, Matt Baker, a pastor from Waco, Texas, returned home to find his wife Kari unconscious, with an empty bottle of Unisom and a suicide note beside her. Paramedics arrived within minutes, but it was too late. Based on the note, the empty bottle of sleeping pills, and the fact that Kari was described as still struggling with the loss of her daughter Cassidy seven years ago, police ruled it a suicide. In a county with no medical examiner, police described the case over the phone to a justice of the peace, who determined that no autopsy was needed. Kari's parents, Jim and Linda Dufin, had no choice but to believe Matt. However, Linda's sisters, Nancy, Kay, and Jennifer, and niece Lindsey believed otherwise. Dubbed "Charlie's Angels", they began their own investigation. After uncovering a possible motive, Linda hired Bill Johnston, a dogged former federal prosecutor, had her daughter's body exhumed and autopsied, and filed a wrongful death suit against Matt. Five months after Kari's death, the justice of the peace declared that her death was no longer classified as a suicide and police subsequently arrested and charged Matt with murder. Believing Matt would be tried in criminal court, Linda dropped her wrongful death suit. After six months, the district attorney still hadn't taken Matt's case to a grand jury -- a requirement under Texas law. Linda eventually refiled the wrongful death suit, shortly before attorney Guy James Gray filed a successful motion to dismiss Matt's criminal case, as a grand jury indictment had not been returned within 180 days. Matt Baker is no longer charged with any crime, though the district attorney continues to investigate and could refile criminal charges. There is no statute of limitations for murder. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Lisa Freed, Gail Abbott Zimmerman) (OAD: 05/10/08). Update for this rebroadcast: On March 25, 2009, a grand jury indicted Baker for the murder of his wife, after a surprise witness -- Vanessa Bulls, a girlfriend of his -- came forward and testified. He will go on trial in September. Graphic postscript: Baker was released from jail on $250,000 bond, pending trial. He's again living in Kerrville, Texas, with his parents and daughters.

- 06/13/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Did the Doctor Kill the Doctor?" - a report on the October 1993 murder of Dr. Linda (Lin) Goudey in Stoneham, Massachusetts. At the time she was dating Dr. Timothy Stryker, who depending on whom you believe, is either a calculating murderer or an innocent man. Goudey and Stryker had been dating but friends believed they were ready to break up, even though they had planned to vacation together. Less than two weeks before the trip, witnesses say they heard the couple arguing; and it was the last night Goudey was seen alive. Four days after she was last seen at the hospital, Goudey was found face down, wrapped in a blanket in the back of her car, in a remote corner of the hospital parking lot. The medical examiner determined it was murder and Stryker became the number one suspect. Nothing police found at the scene pointed directly to Stryker, but it was what they didn't find at the scene that did: her tote bag, the jacket she was wearing and her briefcase were in Stryker's possession. Soon after, Stryker got himself an attorney and the investigation stalled. Goudey's family eventually filed a wrongful death suit. Finally, in 2006, after many delays, the suit finally went to a civil court trial where a jury believed Dr. Stryker killed Dr. Lin Goudey and ordered him to pay Lin's family $15 million. Nobody was surprised that Stryker said he would appeal, but everyone was surprised when he and his lawyer announced they had found a brand new witness. After being questioned by the police, the witness, Craig Pizzano, admitted that Stryker had put him up to it. Stryker was arrested for perjury. This trial hasn't begun yet, but Goudey's family hopes that eventually Stryker will be charged with murder. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Deborah Grau) (OAD: 10/25/08). Update for this rebroadcast: On April 16, 2009, Timothy Stryker pleaded guilty to multiple counts of perjury and was sentenced to four years in prison. His wife Micael has filed for divorce. The homicide investigation continues. Stryker's medical license was immediately revoked after he pled guilty to perjury.
- 06/16/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Kidnapped: Shawn Hornbeck's Incredible Story" - On October 6, 2002, eleven-year-old Shawn Hornbeck was kidnapped while riding his bicycle in his home town of Richwoods, Missouri. Over the course of the next four and a half years, he was held captive and sexually abused by his abductor, Michael Devlin. Threatened with death and the death of his parents, he took on the life Devlin dictated, posing as his son and even making friends with neighbors. Devlin wielded such terror that Shawn never revealed his real identity to anyone, despite numerous opportunities to ask for help. Then, in January 2007, Devlin abducted another youth, Ben Ownby. With the help of a witness to that abduction, the FBI was able to trace Devlin's car and confront him. When they went to Devlin's apartment, they found both Ben Ownby and Shawn Hornbeck. At his hearing, Devlin pleaded guilty. He was sentenced on multiple counts to 72 life terms and an additional 170 years in prison. Among those interviewed are: Shawn Hornbeck; his parents, Pam and Craig Akers; FBI agent Lynn Willett; and Dr. Marylene Cloitre, New York University psychologist and trauma specialist. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Into Thin Air" - a report on the disappearance of Jeanette Louise Zapata, who mysteriously vanished without a trace from her home in Madison, Wisconsin on October 11, 1976 -- leaving behind her daughter Linda, and two other children. In the midst of a divorce at the time of her disappearance, she had been married for seventeen years to an engineer, Eugene Zapata. Their marriage had been troubled -- Jeanette discovered that Eugene had sent nude photographs of her to a swingers magazine and oftentimes his behavior towards her around their children was sexual and provocative. Due to his stalking-like behavior, she also had a restraining order against Zapata. Though Officer Greg Martin found Zapata's behavior strange, the results of his lie detector test were inconclusive. With no physical evidence, the case stalled. Eugene Zapata moved back into the house he had once occupied with Jeanette and acted as though nothing had happened. He explained to the children that Jeanette had simply taken off because she was stressed. In November 2004, Jeanette's best friend, Peggy Weekly -- who never believed that Jeanette would abandon her three children -- contacted police in Madison to reopen the case. Assigned to the case was Detective Marianne Flynn Stutz, who after a preliminary investigation, was convinced that Jeanette had been killed and that the right suspect was Eugene. She contacted Linda Zapata, who expressed her own doubts regarding her father's innocence and agreed to help police with their case. After a thorough investigation, Eugene Zapata was arrested for the murder of Jeanette. His trial began in September 2007, but ended in a hung jury. Prosecutor Bob Kaiser was ready to go back to court and try Zapata again, when Zapata surprised everyone and agreed to answer questions regarding Jeanette's disappearance, but only if prosecutors would reduce the charge from murder to reckless homicide. His daughter Linda agreed. According to Eugene, he had argued with Jeanette the morning of October 11, 1976 and when her back was turned, hit her on the head with a paperweight and then strangled her twice. Then he began a grisly thirty year odyssey with her body: burying it, exhuming it, reburying it, and eventually he cut her body into pieces and took it to a land fill. Eugene Zapata was sentenced to five years for reckless homicide. Linda Zapata has been cut off from her immediate family: despite Eugene's plea, her brother and sister no longer speak to her. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Picture Perfect" - On June 9, 2008, 30-year-old Travis Alexander, a successful businessman and devout Mormon, was found murdered in his Mesa, Arizona home. He had been shot and then repeatedly stabbed. For a little more than a year, he had been involved with Jodi Arias, an aspiring photographer whom he had met at a business conference. She adopted his Mormon beliefs, which forbid premarital sex -- but they did become sexually involved. Although they supposedly ended their relationship when Jodi found out that Travis was interested in some other girls, Jodi then moved to Mesa. Police investigation of the murder scene recovered a digital camera with electronically dated, sexually explicit photos Travis and Jodi had taken of themselves -- and photos of Travis during the time he was being killed or soon after. When confronted by police, Jodi claimed that two masked intruders had broken in to Travis' home and murderously assaulted him -- but that she was able to escape. She did not call anyone for help, and told no one of the assault. Five days later, Travis was found dead by his roommates. Further police investigation resulted in the arrest of Jodi Arias on charges of first-degree murder. Her trial will take place sometime in 2010. Includes interviews with Jodi Arias; Chris and Sky Hughes, friends of Travis Alexander; Samantha and Steve Alexander, Travis' sister and brother; Travis' friends Taylor Searle, Brint Hiatt, and Aaron Mortenson; Esteban Flores, detective, Mesa Police Department. - 06/27/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "An Invisible Enemy" - a follow-up to "An Invisible Enemy" (OAD: 12/08/07). In January 2007, Cynthia Sommer was convicted of murdering her Marine Sgt. husband Todd in February 2002 with a lethal dose of arsenic. But ten months after her conviction, she was granted a new trial because of questions about the validity of the lab tests that found arsenic in some of Todd Sommer's tissue samples but not in others. His tissue samples were now sent to another lab to be tested for arsenic -- and none was found. Because of this, the prosecution concluded that there was a reasonable doubt; murder charges against Cynthia Sommer were dropped, and the case was dismissed. However, Todd Sommer's death is still officially listed as a homicide, and the court left open the possibility that Cynthia Sommer could be charged again. Interviewed are: Cynthia Sommer; Jan Lippert, Cynthia's mother; Allen Bloom, Cynthia Sommer's new defense attorney; Mark Ridley, Naval Criminal Investigative Service special agent; Rob Terwilliger, a second NCIS special agent; Bonnie Dumanis, San Diego District Attorney; Dr. Lee Cantrell, toxicologist; Dr. Glenn Wagner, medical examiner; Eva Stoner, military police officer; Al Poklis, arsenic expert. - 06/30/09      48 HOURS: "Michael Jackson: Picking Up The Pieces" - A report on the life and career of music icon Michael Jackson, who died suddenly on June 25th, at the age of 50. Featured segments: (1) Correspondent Bill Whitaker reports on the bizarre spectacle Jackson's life had become and still is, even in death: legal woes, confusion over wills, child custody, and finances. Includes excerpts of interviews with author and CBS News Consultant J. Randy Taraborrelli; AEG concert promoter Randy Phillips; estate attorney Andrew Katzenstein; and Jackson family attorney Brian Oxman. (2) Correspondent Harold Dow reports on Jackson's complex relationship with the African-American community because he seemed at times to be ashamed of who he was. Includes: an interview with Rev. Gregory Jackson, pastor, Mount Olive Baptist Church, Hackensack, NJ; excerpts of interviews with "American Idol" judge Randy Jackson; singer Usher; Jackson biographer Nelson George; Rev. Al Sharpton; and excerpts of separate interviews with record producer/composer/arranger Quincy Jones and director Spike Lee by Katie Couric. (3) Lara Spencer (anchor, "The Insider") reports on what may happen to Jackson's children, who are now with his mother, Katherine. There have been unconfirmed reports that both Jackson and his former wife, Debbie Rowe, are not the biological parents of the two older children. Includes excerpts from a 2004 interview with Debbie Rowe and excerpts from an interview with producer Ken Ehrlich, who recalls how Jackson loved being a father. (4) Correspondent Peter Van Sant reports on how even though Jackson was an unparalleled performer, some of his financial moves were lacking. Musician Paul McCartney once gave Jackson some business advice about getting into music publishing. Jackson subsequently outbid McCartney for the rights to McCartney's music -- the Beatles catalogue. However, it seems that Jackson spent much more money than he actually made. Following child molestation charges, million dollar settlements and trial fees, he moved to the Middle East and stopped touring. He planned to rejuvenate his career and his finances with the fifty concerts scheduled to begin next month in London. Includes excerpts from a 48 HOURS interview with Paul McCartney (OAD: 01/25/00); forensic accountant J. Duross O'Bryan; Matthew Miller of Forbes Magazine; Bill Werde of Billboard magazine, who compares Jackson to Elvis Presley; (5) Tim Kash (MTV News) reports how Michael Jackson influenced a new generation of musicians who grew up long after his rise to superstardom -- from Chris Brown to Beyonce to Ne-Yo, to Usher to Justin Timberlake. Madonna, Britney Spears and Janet Jackson have all danced on video with synchronized dancers, but Jackson did it first: he turned the music video from a promotional tool to an art form. Includes interviews with musicians Usher, Justin Timberlake, J.C. Chasch, Patrick Stimp, David Cook. (6) Correspondent/Anchor Katie Couric concludes with Michael Jackson's legacy -- how his music defined the era from 1969, on through the decades of his superstardom, to 1993 -- when his life began to unravel. With his death, the darker side of his life is being pushed aside and his successes in life are being remembered. Includes additional excerpts of Couric's interview with director Spike Lee. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"Faith, Music & Culture" - A presentation of how contemporary music is being employed to express religious faith and belief within four different religious traditions: Judaism, Christianity, Hinduism, and Islam. 1.) Hasidic hip-hop artists DeScribe, Y-Love and Diwon are observant Jewish rappers with a spiritual message: to bring a more positive message within hip-hop, to elevate and inspire, while encouraging unity among all people - regardless of faith or nationality. 2.) Eugene Chisholm, Dennis Ogarra, Ian Williams, Charlie Thompson, and James Macklin are the members of an all-male a cappella group, Anointed Voices -- formed two years ago after meeting at Christian-based "The Bowery Mission" in New York City. All were once homeless and struggled with drug and alcohol addiction. 3.) Kirtan, the ancient Hindu practice of call-and-response chanting of Sanskrit mantras, is considered a form of meditation and is growing in popularity in the United States. Featured are Gnara Vani & As Kindred Spirits, a Washington, D.C.-based Kirtan group. 4.) Qawwali is the devotional music of Sufism, the mystical arm of Islam; Sufis believe that communion with the divine is possible through this music. The Brooklyn Qawwali Party is an eclectic 11-piece orchestra based in Brooklyn, NY. Founder Brook Martinez was inspired by the late Qawwali singer from Pakistan, Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan -- and the resulting music is the sound of Qawwali with a funky jazz sensibility.
